

Woman's Friend

Nearly all women suffer at times from female ailments. Some women suffer more acutely and more constantly than others. But whether you have little pain or whether you suffer intensely, you should take Wine of Cardui and get relief.

Cardui is a safe, natural medicine, for women, prepared scientifically from harmless vegetable ingredients. It acts easily on the female organs and gives strength and tone to the whole system.

TAKE CARDUI

The Woman's Tonic

Mrs. Verna Wallace, of Sanger, Tex., tried Cardui. She writes: "Cardui has done more for me than I can describe. Last spring I was taken with female inflammation and consulted a doctor, but to no avail, so I took Cardui, and inside of three days, I was able to do my housework. Since then my trouble has never returned." Try it.

WAR AGAINST LABOR LEADERS.

"This is a fight of decency against the oppressor of labor; it is the fight of clean laboring men against the leaders that have betrayed them for personal profit. New York has wrestled with the monster; San Francisco is fighting with it now, and today Chicago is trying to clear its own stables."

This was part of the denunciation heaped on Martin B. (Skinny) Madden and his two lieutenants in the building trades council of Chicago in the closing hours of their trial yesterday for accepting money to call off strikes. The denunciation was pronounced by Assistant State Attorney J. B. Scott in the first of the closing arguments.

The case probably will not reach the jury before Thursday. The penalty in case of conviction is from one to five years in the penitentiary or a fine of $2,000, or both. Madden and his friends are confident of acquittal.

Mr. Scott went over the entire testimony, declaring that the state had proved a conspiracy to rob Joseph Klecka by calling a strike without cause on his plant and forcing him to pay $1,000 to settle it.

KILLED IN A FIGHT.

Scott Leads, a plumber working on the office building of the Norfolk and Western, at Roanoke, was killed yesterday in a fight with Foreman J. D. Parish, in charge of the building for Contractor J. P. Pettijohn. The men became involved in a quarrel over work and a fight ensued, in which Leads was knocked down the steps, falling on his head. His skull was crushed. The injured man was taken to the City Hospital, where he died yesterday afternoon. He was about 65 years of age and is survived by a wife and several sons and daughters, all grown, one of them being the wife of James McFall, chief of the Roanoke fire department. A warrant has been issued for Parish, but so far he has not been apprehended.
